“ I remember babysitting the kid's for Lynda when I was still kind of young while her husband slept & she worked. She was always so nice to me and made sure that all of us were ok and settled before she left us. At church (Woodglen) she was always willing to help in anyway she could. She will be missed.

“ I remember so many mission trips with Lynda Anderson. She was such a talented ventriloquist and so creative with the skits she would write with her beloved puppet Vern. She could always make the children smile and tell them about the love of Jesus. Lynda was always up for adventure. One of the scariest ones was the termite ladder! We climbed up to a bat cave and the last fifteen feet was an old rotten rope ladder covered with hungry termites. It was an accident waiting to happen. That didn't stop Lynda! Actually the view of the valley below was worth it and the photo I posted was the survival photo. I know it doesn't compare to the adventures Lynda is having with her family in heaven and her Savior!
