“ We were so sorry to learn of Lynn's death. I did write a note to your old box no. at Elkins Lake, so perhaps you received that. We recalled old times in Church, and the bowling league, plus the camping trips we both had taken. Know your faith and friends will see you through, Kathleen and do hope Lyndsay is happy and well. We really miss Randy, who died suddenly of cardiac arrest on May 5, 2008. Donna has been here taking special math courses and flies back to Hawaii tomorrow. She is head of the math dept. in a private high school there and they teach the advance IB program, so she gets free trips to the States to learn the program. Her husband, Eric, is retired military and is working for the Army as a civilian in Security. Brady, now 53 moved back here from KY after 11 years there and is doing very well. He loves Houston and all the Tex-Mex food he can eat! His son, Keith, is in a church school in Lubbock and is 21 now. We love you and wish you all the best - Lawrean and Dick Isaacks

“ It was my pleasure to know and care for Mr. Phillips
His legacy is amazing and his love for life, his country, his alma mater and his precious wife are a testimony to faithfulness.
Dr. Phillips, you did an outstanding job at your dad's service and you showed the immense strength passed to you from him. It was a pleasure listening to how well you knew him and how wonderfully he will be remembered.
My thoughts and prayers will be with you and your family as you adjust to this "new norm" and the changes that will bring.

“ I always enjoyed our conversations when he or the both of you would stop by Elkins Lake Real Estate Office on the way to the post office. He strived to make Elkins Lake the very best place to live. He was a very kind person.

I am so sorry for your loss.

“ I want to express my sympathy to the family and Kathleen. Lyndsay Phillips was someone who will be missed in our community. I got to know both of them through the Crime Stoppers program and other activities. This developed into a wonderful relationship of friendship. I could talk with Lyndsay at times that it brought back thoughts of earlier years. Lyndsay was someone you could talk with, enjoy life's moments, and learn from his wisdom. Kathleen, I know you will miss Lynday, but he is in a wonderful place. Lyndsay would say to take care of yourself and our God will give you the comfort and strength needed. To the family, you have some great parents and I am blessed to have shared a part of their lives.
