“ "Laverne" and I were good friends back in Spring Branch/Houston, TX where our kids grew up and John and I went to all their children's weddings. Then we both moved to Montgomery, here in April Sound where we continued to be friends. I feel badly however, that as she started to get more ill I didn't get to see her the past few years. However, she has continued to be in my heart. She was always a dear ,spiritual and talented lady. I still have and treasure the doilies and table runners she crocheted and gave to me.

We plan on coming to the funeral tomorrow if daughter Karen and I don't get lost . LOL May you all keep the good and loving memories you all had with Laverne,, your dear MOM.
