

Maggie Irene Ellisor

April 15, 1927 - October 12, 2013

IRENE C. ELLISOR Maggie Irene Cauthen Ellisor, 86, passed away on October 4, 2013. Irene was born to Henry and Nettie Cauthen on April 15, 1927 in Richards, Texas. Irene married Calvin M. Ellisor on July 14, 1946 and they were married for 61 years prior to Calvin's death in 2008. She was a beautician, owned a western wear store, helped Calvin his many businesses, whether it be roofing, construction, or mini-warehouses. Irene and Calvin were two of the founding members of Second Baptist Church in Huntsville. Irene was a very versatile lady. She was an artist, she loved to paint, to travel, and gardening. She enjoyed her Tuesday morning coffee with the ladies, and her Thursday evening happy hour with a different group of ladies. But most of all she loved to spoil her grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Irene is survived by her sons and their spouses, Jerry C. Ellisor (Alice) and Mathew Ray Ellisor (Ann), her grandchildren, Edith Dixon (Kenneth), Kyle Ellisor, "Buster" Ellisor (Tish), Byron Ellisor, Colby Oldham (Lisa), Heather Gifaldi (Vanessa), Missy Adams (Mark), and Will Yeager (Callie). She is also survived by eleven great-grandchildren, and a host of nieces and nephews, who all loved her. Irene was preceded in death by her husband, parents, five sisters and 4 brothers. The family will be receiving visitors Friday October 11, 2013 from 6:00 – 8:00 p.m. Services celebrating Irene's life will be held at 2:00 p.m. on Saturday, October 12, 2013 at Sam Houston Memorial Funeral Home, 1700 Normal Park, Huntsville, Texas. Those wishing to leave memorial condolences for the family may do so at www.shmfh.com.

“ To all that knew her, Irene was like no other an irreplaceable to her family. She was a special Mom, Grandmother, Aunt and friend. At age 86 she seemed younger than most and enjoyed life. Even though you will always miss her, you are blessed with fond loving memories. My deepest sympathy and wishing you comfort in the days ahead.

“ Ray, Ann, and family, we are so sorry for the loss of your Mother. Such a tragic end to a life well lived. Even though your hearts are breaking from the absence of your Mom, you all have so many precious memories to hold on to and give you comfort. Celebrate her life and be thankful God let you borrow her for so long. We love you all and will keep your family in our prayers. May God bless you and comfort you.

“ Ray and Ann, We wish we had words to ease your pain and mend your hearts. Our words can only offer moments of peace. We know that you are both strong Christians, seek him and cling to his promises, that is where you will find true peace of mind. Ray your mother instilled in you the love of Jesus, call on him in this time of remembrance. Your mother was such a strong Christian! We know that to be true because she was blessed with a son as strong as you. Celebrate her life and memories! For now, We pray that Jesus sends you an angel to wrap his wings around you and Ann to give your hearts and mind some comfort. We are your friends and we are here when you need us!

“ My heart breaks to hear of this tragedy. She was such a vibrant woman. I remember her when Edith and I were younger and I remember her later in life when Calvin was one of my patients. I loved her like she was my own grandmother! Our thoughts and prayers are with you all during this time. I know Calvin was awaiting for his bride to be reunited with him.

“ *To My Beloved Ones,
We have lost another dearly beloved one - Irene Ellisor{Mrs. Calvin Ellisor.} My deepest sympathy and hopes for peace and comfort in the future go out to everyone who knew and loved her.
She was so good to everyone but especially her relatives. I have so many wonderful memories of staying with my Aunt Irene and her family: Uncle Calvin, and her sons Ray and Jerry.
I had such good times with all of them-laughing at Uncle Calvin's jokes, playing cowboys and Indians with the boys, and such lovely times, including having my hair done, with Aunt Irene. As a matter of fact, my whole family would visit - having dinners, making ice cream, playing cards, sitting out in the yard-watching fireflies while the adults talked and the kids ran around yelling, etc. Oh, what great times we had at family reunions and homecomings: going to church, singing, eating, the best food around, and the women men and boys pulling cars out of the red mud with their chains and trucks. Our families also went on summer vacations together and the places were never the same!
She will be missed by so many. We grieve together in spirit.*

“ Irene was a "stylish" grandma! She kept my "sassy" grandmother (Georgia Townley) grounded in many ways. They had great fun together and I am blessed to have been a part of some of their many trips, camping and Disney World. I will cherish the memories shared in the sewing and painting room with them both. They taught me more about life in the way they lived, a simple life that was centered around family. She will be missed terribly but I know the both of them are having a "grand time" together again!

“ *Edith, Ray, Jerry and all the family,
I am so very sorry to hear about the passing of Aunt Irene. She was one of the most loving & compassionate people I have ever met & I so idolized her when I was little and still do today. She loved everyone and made everyone feel so very special. I know that she treated us like her own & so many times she gifted us with the very things we truly needed and she never asked for anything in return. I have been crying sporadically over the last few days everytime I would think of her (very often) & the wonderful memories I shared with her. I still treasure the little green animal blanket she gave me when Matthew was born 34 years ago and it'll always be so special to me because I know she picked it out just for me. She always had the prettiest smile on her face & the most wonderful laugh that I loved to hear. I know Uncle Calvin is so happy to have her back but I know his days in Heaven of stirring people up will slow down with her there to keep watch over him again! Their love was such a special love that you could only envy it and hope for it the one time in your life! I will miss my beloved Aunt but know that she is in a much better place than all of us and that we will see her again! There is not enough room for me to write all my feelings for Aunt Irene but I think you all know how very special she & Uncle Calvin were to me & my family! You have my phone number so please let me know if I can help out in any way! Many Hugs and much love...
