“ I just met Marc through the To The Fallen project. I am so sorry for your loss. This poem has often comforted me.

*We little knew that morning
that God would call your name.
In life we loved you dearly,
In death we do the same.
It broke our hearts to lose you,
you did not go alone;
for part of us went with you,
the day God called you home.*

*You left us with our memories,
your love is still our guide;
and though we cannot see you,
you are always at our side.*

*Our family chain is broken,
and nothing seems the same;
but as GOD calls us one by one,
The Chain will link again.*

“ Joyce,

I am so sorry for your loss. Although I did not know Marc I found my way to his website via Dawn aka Desa and was deeply moved I too have this terrible cancer. I am certain you will recieve hundreds of sympathy cards, etc this week. Please let this be a time for remembering all the lives he touched, some of which he didn't even know. I myself was so moved that I my video was posted on his page. God Bless!

“ Dear Joyce and Family,
Just a little over a month ago, Marc stood on stage in Dallas, at EIP 2007 and shared his story with us. His message was strong and is still being shared with others. The next day, some of his close friends sat with him in a hotel room and listened to his song "Light A Candle For Me" which brought tears to our eyes. Again his message was strong and is being shared with others. Marc had a dream and although he knew his life would be short, he never stopped pursueing his dreams, until they came true. Marc made a difference, with the miracles he was given and he won't be forgotten.

God bless you.
