

Margerite Knox Brewton Oldenbuttel

January 27, 1918 - June 29, 2010

Marguerite Knox Brewton Oldenbuttel Marguerite Knox Brewton Oldenbuttel, native of Waycross, GA, passed away on June 29, 2010 in Huntsville, TX. She was born January 27, 1918. She lived most of her life in Waycross until moving to Huntsville in 2005 to live with her son and daughter-in-law. Marguerite spent several years teaching pre-schoolers in Atlanta, GA while her husband attended Emory University to obtain his dental degree. Upon moving back to Waycross, she taught fourth graders at Gilchrist Park Elementary School. She was an active member of First United Methodist Church in Waycross, serving as Altar Guild Chairman, Circle leader numerous times and on various other committees. She loved flowers and was an avid gardener as witnessed by her beautiful yard. She was a long time member of the Magnolia Garden Club in Waycross. Marguerite was preceded in death by her parents Dr. James and Lucille Brewton, husband Dr. Neil V. Oldenbuttel, Jr., sons Jimmy Oldenbuttel, Victor Oldenbuttel, and sisters Louise Pittman and Dorothy Slaton. Survivors include nephew Bill Slaton and great nephew Will Slaton of Jacksonville, FL, niece Lucy McTier and family, daughter-in-law Jan Nemir Oldenbuttel of Huntsville, Texas, granddaughter Kelly Oldenbuttel Day and husband MAJ Jason Day, great granddaughter Danielle Day and great grandson Woods Day of Ft. Belvoir, Va. Although she lived in Texas for several years, her heart remained in Georgia which will be her final resting place. Arrangements will be under the direction of Sam Houston Memorial Funeral Home of Huntsville and Miles-Odum Funeral Home of Waycross at a date to be announced. Those wishing to leave a memorial may do so at First United Methodist Church in Waycross, GA or First Presbyterian Church in Huntsville, TX. Special thanks to the staff at Ella Smither Geriatric Center and especially Lynne Coyman, Britney McCasland, and Colleen Franklin for the compassionate care she received. Thanks also to Dr. David Ficklen, Dr. David Toronjo, Dr. Karen Olson, Odyssey Hospice and Becky Skidmore. Those wishing to leave memorial condolences for the family may do so at www.shmfh.com
