“ I loved going over to Aunt Mimi’s house when I was a little girl. Her home almost felt like a second home to me. I think it was the homey feel of her house and also Aunt Mimi just being the way she was— so loving and sweet. I loved walking from room to room and admiring all her lovingly curated knick knacks and antiques. I loved the glass jars of candy that were in her kitchen. And I always knew I was going to have a delicious meal when I visited. She was the best cook.

“ I didn't get the chance to know Mimi, but in a way, I feel that I did. I got to know and love her legacy: her children and grandchildren. Without her, I would not have my wonderful mother-in-law and husband. Marian, without a doubt, contributed greatly to their characters. I am extremely grateful to be enjoying the fruits of her labor!

“ I have many fond memories of Mimi. As I told Becky when she called me, Mimi made me feel so welcome when I came into the Schmitt family. She was so sweet and kind and always there if I needed help (mostly with cooking). She gave me several recipes, an egg casserole that I make every Christmas morning, brownies (that I call Mimi's Brownies) and a fluffy frosting that she said to put on a chocolate cake and drizzle melted hersey bars over top. Just ask any member of my family and they will tell you it is their favorite cake, hands down, haha! She was just a special person that you girls were lucky to have as a mother.
