Marjorie was a resident of St. Charles Parish, LA for 49 years. As a devout

Christian and member of Bible Center Church in Luling, she loved her family, church, studying and teaching the Bible, singing, reading and traveling. As a Bible teacher, she devoted much of her life to spreading God's word to the women of St. Charles Parish and shared this thought with her family, "I want to be remembered as someone who lived her life to please the Lord Jesus Christ". While she will be sadly missed, her home is in Heaven. In lieu of flowers, donations in her memory may be made to the Bible Center Church in Luling or to the Susan G. Komen Foundation (www.komen.org).

“ I've known Margie since high school. She was a sophisticated senior. But she was not "stuck up"! She would speak to little ol me--- a lowly sophomore!!! I was thrilled 2 years later that she became my sister in law! And a life long dear friend. She listened. She cared. She followed Jesus. That was the most important. Margie loved her Lord and Savior and I treasure the times we would talk for hours about Him. She was so knowledgeable about the Bible in loving ways. I was going to visit her & Jim in a few days and already had my questions ready!!

I love you, my sister in Christ---see you soon??🙏(Someday for sure)❤️
