“*Sandy and Doug,
Bill and I are so sorry for your loss. We only met Mark a few times, but we were always impressed with his warmth and humor. Ya'll certainly made his time on earth the very BEST it could be. Now he is free from his wheelchair and flying with all the angels!
May God's comfort be with you and yours during your time of sorrow.*

“Doug, Sandy, and Craig...please know how sorry we are for your loss. We were all fortunate in knowing Mark...he was always so happy and joking at the Physical Plant Christmas celebrations with anyone who stopped and chatted with him. I still remember when he helped out in the Work Control Center..we truly laughed all day. I cling to the wonderful memories of my family who have gone on...it seems they are always by my side. I know he will continue to be with ya'll spiritually, and through faith ya'll will see him again. With deepest regrets for your sorrow and loss-Peggy and Jim Atkinson

“ Doug and Sandy, I remember when Mark would come to our Christmas open houses. He was always such a sweet, kind young man. I don't believe words are written that can help a parent get over the loss of a child, no matter what the age of a child. My heart just aches for y'all and I hope you can find comfort in the fact that you raised a good son, and a fine man. My thoughts and prayers are with you and I know you will have that reunion, but I also know it has to be difficult to wait until that time.

“ Dear Sandy, Doug and family : Mark was a very kind and noble soul. That's why God called him.
There are not words to ease the loss, just know you are very close in every thought and prayers.

We are saddened at the physical loss of a love one, but my faith assures me they are with us more than ever now, and in a wonderful place enjoying the peace and joy we all hope to reach one day. They are just blessed to already be there waiting on us. The love and caring you and your family provided Mark is inspiration for all of us. May God Bless all of you with comfort.
