I can't say I knew Mark well, but was honored to join my wife Brea to celebrate with him and Courtney all those years ago as they married. His loss is felt and we are with you in spirit even though we can't be in person right now. Please don't hesitate to hit us up. I've got a ton more photos from that wonderful day and sometimes it helps to appreciate the depth of the good times amidst the worst.

“ My favorite memory of Mark was a couple of years ago. I had already been married for a couple of years, but the subject came up. He said "Why'd you plan your wedding for opening weekend [of deer season]? I would have come!" It was suddenly clear why so few of the men on my dad's side made it up to Dallas that day. Above all, this was a testament to Marks honesty and commitment. In this case, a commitment to TPWD limitations. Mark was an amazing and hard-working husband, father, brother, and son, and we are all fortunate to have had him in our lives.
