

Mark Allen Mayolo

May 6, 1963 - April 6, 2021

Mark Allen Mayolo was called home by our Lord and Savior on April 6, 2021, in Crosby, Texas. He was born May 6, 1963, in Lincoln Nebraska. Mark was preceded in death by his father, Bernard Mayolo, of Lincoln, Nebraska, and his in laws, Eugene and Ethel Vogt, of Montgomery, Texas. Mark leaves behind a loving wife of twenty-two years, Sara Anne (nee Vogt), two sons, Michael and Christopher, of Crosby, Texas, his mother, Kathleen (nee Monroe) Holl and her husband, Charles, which Mark referred to as "Dad", of Ocala, Florida. Mark is also survived by two brothers, Jeremy Mayolo, of Lincoln, Nebraska, and David Mayolo, of Bushnell, Florida, a nephew, Russell Mayolo, in Massachusetts, and many, many other nieces and nephews.

Mark received his college education in Massachusetts and worked for Bayer Chemical in Crosby, Texas, for many years. Mark was a family man through and through. He was an ardent student of the Bible and had a keen mind for all things technical and mechanical. Mark loved researching various products and the way they worked. He was a lifelong student of history, archaeology, geology, political science, and had a passion for space flight and aviation.

Mark's visitation will be held at Sam Houston Memorial Funeral Home in Willis, Texas on Wednesday, April 28 at 2:00 PM with Funeral Services beginning at 3:00. Burial will follow services at Smith Memorial Park Cemetery. Donations in lieu of flowers may be sent to the Tunnel to Towers Foundation in memory of Mark. You are invited to leave a written condolence for the family at <http://www.shmfh.com>.

“ Condolences to Mark and his family. As cousins (our mother, Bertha Monroe Caler, was Mark's aunt), we did not get to spend a lot of time with him due to the physical distance of him growing up in Nebraska and we were in Kansas, but when we could spend time together Mark was always making us laugh and feel at home.

So sorry to hear about his passing. Another of the good people taken far too early. He will be missed.
