Aunt Marlene and my mom, Joann, were best friends in high school. Now, they are dancing together on the streets of gold in Heaven!!! (This picture is from my college graduation in 1979.)

“ I am so sad to hear of Marlene's passing. She was a lovely Lady. She always had a Smile on her face. Plus she was a great Hand & Foot Canasta player. Her fellow canasta players absolutely loved her and missed her when she had to drop out of the group. This special Lady will be greatly missed.

“ I remember Marlene's beautiful smile and quick wit... always making us smile or laugh... always happy and upbeat. I will miss her. I am praying for the repose of her soul and for God's comfort for Charlie and the family. Marlene is still with us... she's no longer in pain and is a saint now. So we should rejoice.

I have so many fond memories of Marlene. Please, accept my heartfelt sympathy for you and your family. She was always so much fun and, her pies were delicious.

Dear Uncle Charlie, Cindy, Greg, and Family,

We were so sorry to hear about Aunt Marlene. The Good News is that she is at peace in the presence of God, but she will be greatly missed. We are praying for all of you.

It's interesting to me that my mom and Aunt Marlene both left this earth on the third Friday in April and had their services on the following Monday. Now, these best friends are celebrating in Heaven together!!! I miss and love them both, as I know you do, too. They both were so good to me.

*Love and Prayers,
Margaret (and Fred) Kinney*
