“ Mark is was one of the best communications operators I ever had the pleasure of working with. She kept a constant vigil on us when we were on a bad call and GOD forbid that you failed to answer her welfare checks during said call as she would unleash the forces of nature to send help your way. Once the situation had stabilized and all officers were secure, the primary deputy and his sergeant should expect a radio call to call dispatch for their summary dressing down for not responding to her call checking welfare. Thst dressing down was tempered with her caring spirit and nurturing way. Marble is certainly educating souls now in heaven and we shall meet again someday and I expect to give a full accounting of my whereabouts since last checking in. RIP my friend.

Spell check changed Marnie to Mark. I will be corrected in heaven for that too!

“ Marnie was probably the best police dispatcher I ever worked with. She always knew what we wanted before we asked and had it waiting for us. She was steadfastly protective of “ her officers “ and we loved her for it. God bless you Marnie
