“ *To the Roarks:
I got to know Marshall at Iron Works Health Club where he enjoyed working out and lifting weights. We became friends at the gym and we would work out together sometimes. I had the knowledge of Marshall being a young man trying to find his way in this world, so I would encourage him every chance I got. He made great progress turning his thin body into a muscular one by putting a lot of effort into lifting weights. I am so sorry for your loss. Best wishes to the Roark family during this sad time.*

“ Lloyd, Mary and Lloyd Jr., I am you have my deepest sympathy for the loss of Marshall. I hear that it had been a bumpy road that lead to the this sudden and regretable end. Some time the mental suffering of a person can go unseen or can be masked with other factors hiding the true inner pain that a person might feel. Cling to one another and try to understand the pain you all carry from this unfortunate ending. Sincerely, Vicci

I remember playing pool, getting to know Marshall at the house in 2006, and speaking with him until I left Recruiting Duty in 2008. My heart stopped when I saw his name and picture on this web page. My heart and prayers go out to you. I will be going to Afghanistan shortly I will think of him alot. God Bless.

“ Judge and Mary,
What do we say at a time such as this? Words cannot express our sorrow, nor can they heal your pain. We are truly sorry for your loss. Often I recall the times we sat under the barn at the Fair Grounds, getting to know ya'll better and trying to keep up with our sons, always ready to hand out another dollar for them to get something to drink or eat.
We have the upmost respect for you both and are praying that God gives you comfort in this time of need. May God touch your hurting heart.
Marshall will never be forgotten.
