“ *Melody,
My deepest condolences in you and your families loss. I remember bits and pieces of your strength and your personality and how you made me laugh growing up in your presence. I don't know a lot about your family but I know if they are a part of you they are strong and caring as well. I hope you remember that even though you put wigs on me that I'm a part of family too. This is hard to come up with the right things to say in times like this. Just want you to know that I love you and I care.

“I sadden to hear of Marvin's passing. Every since elementary school, I knew Marvin and Rusty. Then I met Kenny. In high school we became good friends; along with some other in our grade. Lots of morning talks, helping one another pass, and lots of laughter. We made it through high school and graduated in 69. Like many other friends, lost contact. I've only seen Marvin once since graduation and met his wife at our 10 year reunion. But I never forgot our school years. I wish I could be at the funeral but we will be out of town. My prayers go out to the family. May God be your peace and comfort.

“ I remember Daddy’s hands, folded silently in prayer.
And reaching out to hold me, when I had a nightmare.
You could read quite a story, in the callouses and lines.
Years of work and worry had left their mark behind.
I remember Daddy’s hands, how they held my Mama tight,
And patted my back, for something done right.
There are things that I’ve forgotten, that I loved about the man,
But I’ll always remember the love in Daddy’s hands.

*Daddy's hands were soft and kind when I was cryin' .
Daddy's hands, were hard as steel when I'd done wrong.
Daddy's hands, weren't always gentle
But I've come to understand.
There was always love in Daddy's hands.*

*I remember Daddy's hands, working 'til they bled.
Sacrificed unselfishly, just to keep us all fed.
If I could do things over, I'd live my life again.
And never take for granted the love in Daddy's hands.*

*Daddy's hands were soft and kind when I was cryin' .
Daddy's hands, were hard as steel when I'd done wrong.
Daddy's hands, weren't always gentle
But I've come to understand.
There was always love in Daddy's hands.*

*Daddy's hands were soft and kind when I was cryin' .
Daddy's hands, were hard as steel when I'd done wrong.
Daddy's hands, weren't always gentle
But I've come to understand.
There was always love
In Daddy's hands.*

“ Scooter, Talitta and Melody, We are so deeply sorry for the loss of Marvin and honored to have had the opportunity to get to know him over the years. I will miss his smile and all the good advice he gave me along with the many talks we had over the years. What I learned that was the most important was his amazing love for his family. That is a legacy of honor. We love you and will miss you Marvin as we continue to lift your family in prayer during this difficult time.
