

Marvin James Wisnoski

July 26, 1964 - September 20, 2019

Marvin James Wisnoski, 55, passed from this life to his next journey on September 20, 2019. Although Marvin had dealt with some health issues the past few months his passing was sudden and unexpected. Marvin was born July 26, 1964 in Houston to Arlene Johnson and Edward Wisnoski. He was the youngest of three children and is preceded in death by his father, Edward Wisnoski. Marvin is survived by his daughter Sarah Wisnoski and companion Chris White and a special grandson, Mason James White. Also mourning his loss is his mother Arlene Johnson, sisters Patsy Mosley, Donna Glass, stepsons Andrew and Jeremy Osceola along with a host of Aunts, Nieces, and Nephews.

Marvin was a Master Craftsman that specialized in the installation and refinishing of hardwood flooring. His level of skill in this craft has been admired by many. Besides his family, Marvin's passion was fishing, the Astros, and NASCAR. Either fresh or saltwater, he was always ready to wet a line. Marvin also got special enjoyment from pranking and practical joking friends & family.

A celebration of Marvin's life will be held at 11:00am Tuesday, September 24, 2019, at the First Baptist Church in Dodge, Texas. Brother Patrick Gernenz presiding.
