“Mary and I graduated together from Montgomery and remained lifelong friends. She was a . Sweet loving person and we shared lots of fun times and memories. The world has lost a bit of sunshine when Mary passed. To her family I say I am so sorry for your loss. She fought the good fight through her illnesses and now rests in peace with our savior in heaven. Loved you Mary. You will be missed.

“Mary like all my cousin's has left me with childhood memories that I will never forget she was a loving person who gave all that knew her all the love and caring that you needed. The Easter reunions at her home were some of the best that I can remember. .My thoughts and prayers go out to all her family.
