“ I knew Miss Mary when I was a child. Always nice to me when I was growing up. Her family were long time Lovelady residents. Thinking of you in your sorrow. Norma Dell (Monzingo) Jones of Lovelady.

“ When one of earth's most lovely lights has flickered and gone out, the shadow in your heart is almost more than you can bear. You strive for understanding as you struggle through the days, with undiminished longing for a smile no longer there. Although profoundly changed, the world keeps whirling all around you. In time , you'll find the comfort tender memories can restore. And someday, past the tears, the light of life will be rekindled with hope and love as radiant and inspiring as before. Day by day, may the light of your memories diminish the shadow of sorrow and bring you peace. May it comfort you to know Friends are thinking of you and Remembering you in there prayers. Love to each of you . Helen
