“ Sweet precious friend of mine. I have picked up my phone several times today to call you and how you are and share thanksgiving stories, and it hit all over again, your not home. Brent and I will never be able to drive past your house daily and not look over to get a wave, or see you out feeding your beloved fish, or dropping by with some sweet thoughtful gift . The shock is still there and will be for awhile my dear friend! We became such buddies and have shared so many stories and cried a river of Tears together . I'm gonna miss my friend so very much! You were the most thoughtful person to come into my life unconditionally and for that, I thank you so much! You don't get to many friends like you in your life and we cherished you so much . My comfort now for you is your with your Brother whom you missed so much and now I know your smiling bigger than ever and happy. We will miss you sweet beautiful friend! Prayers for your family and God Bless, Pam and Brent
