

Mary Sue Giesinger Mock

November 18, 1921 - June 16, 2006

Mary Sue Giesinger Mock was born November 18, 1921 in Montgomery, Texas. She passed away June 14, 2006 in Dobbin, Texas. Mary was 84 years young, and a lifetime resident and businesswoman of Dobbin, Texas. She is preceded in death by her husband, Leo Mock, her parents Lawrence and Dora Winslow, and her beloved granddaughter Kelly Mock Phillips and her two brothers Johnnie and Edgar Giesinger and sister Betty Winslow Martin. Mary owned and ran Mock's Grocery for 42 years with her beloved husband who has preceded her in death Leo Mock. Her sons Thomas (Mickey) and Kenny Mock took over the business and Mock's Grocery still thrives 70 years later. Mary was a vivacious woman who was respected by everyone and who never met a stranger and never turned any one down who needed help. She truly believed in helping the people of Dobbin and Montgomery. She taught her children and grandchildren a keen sense of humor, how to make a living and how to help people in need. The family would like to thank Mike and Michelle Mock and their children for the wonderful care and love that they administered to Mary for the last six years of her life. Mary was a member of St. Mary's Catholic Church in Plantersville. Mary is survived by: her daughter and son-in-law Patsy and Paul West; her sons and daughters-in-law, Mickey and Sharon Mock; Leo, Jr. and Linda Mock, and Kenny and Suzie Mock.
