“ With Mary, there was not a bad day. She would not allow us to have a bad day. Mary loved to help others. She would even offer to pay for patients who have financial difficulties. Mary shared God’s Love & Grace with everybody. She had touched so many lives including mine. I love you Mary, you were the blessing from our Lord!

“ My Aunt Mary was the sweetest and have so many memories growing up. Don’t think she ever said no to a sleepover or scary movie, she cooked feasts for a house full of kids and was the best cook. A true angel on earth with the sweetest soul, always and forever in my heart.

“ One beautiful evening we decided to go fishing,we caught a few and decided to leave,the bugs we're getting bad. Well,I noticed Mary was looking for something,we looked and looked for her glasses,we decided to give up because she wasn't sure if she even took them with her. Well,just before we got home we found them on her head. At that point we knew we were getting old,it was a good laugh..
