Favorite Books from the Bible

Proverbs-chapter 31 verse 10-31;

Psalms- chapter 27 verse 4. Chapter 23

Nana was such a protector of her kids and grandkids, she had added: Please protect all our children from this worldly place. Bless our church so we Christians can have a place to praise you and worship you. Help us Lord to be ever watchful so we will be prepared for your coming. Lord keep our hearts full of love and compassion for one another. These blessings I ask in my name and if it be they will- Amen.

When I'm around someone or others talking about things I don't approve of, in my mind I repeat Psalms Chapter 139 Verses 23-24" Search me, O God, and know my heart; try me, and know my thoughts; and see if there be any wicked way in me, and lead me in the way everlasting.

Her morning prayer: Dear Lord, thank you for this day, Thank you for letting me be alive to live it. Please help me not to disappoint you, thank you for all your gifts and blessings, the great, the small, the known, the unknown. Dear Lord be with all others according to they will. If I need to help someone, give me the wisdom and the means to do so. Thank you for being my Savior, my salvation, my healer and my father Amen

“ The last time I seen Mary Anne was at lunch with my Granny and mama. My granny is Eloise Allen and my mama is Sandie Smith. The brothers and sisters would get together every year for lunch. Aunt Mamie, Barbera, Uncle Leon and Aunt Iris, and Uncle Levi. I got to sit by Mary Anne. We were at El Chico. She is the sweetest. We laughed and I got to visit with her the whole time. She made my day. I loved her very much.

“ *My Aunt Mary,
She was someone who loved me unconditionally...no matter what I did.
She taught me how to be a great Aunt ... she led by example.
She opened her heart and arms to everyone... she never knew a stranger.
She was so smart, funny, and wise... helped me out with school, relationships, life issues.
She opened her home to me 24/7...I learned to do so much from our late night gab fests.
She was so tiny in life...but she taught me size doesn't matter, a grain of sand can move a mountain given time.
It's so hard to believe her light is gone from this earth, but I know she is in a better place and at home with Uncle Leonard...but I believe she hasn't really left us...she is forever with us in our memories and hearts!
Will miss our talks, but I know we will get to have them again one day!
Truly one of kind...will be missed by many.*
