“ Prissy, I am so sorry for the loss of your mom. I remember her sweet smile and her occasional hoots of laughter echoing through the pharmacy at some antic of your dad's. She must have had a great sense of humor.

Know that you and your family are in my prayers at this time of grief. If I may offer one bit of advice, take time to gather with your siblings and cousins and share as many of the stories involving your mom as you can. Some may bring tears but many will bring back fond memories, a shout of laughter as each "Do you remember the time when...?" is expressed and brings healing as you realize that she is not gone, she is in your hearts and memories, as you wait until she greets you at heaven's doors.
