“ Cary and Gavin, I only learned of your mother's death today. I am so sorry for your loss. Your mother was a wonderful person, and my mother's best friend from the time she met her until her death. Take comfort in knowing that she was met at the heavenly gates by a host of angels and my mother to welcome her home. They are together again. My thoughts and prayers are with you. Mary

“ My sympathy to Mary Jo's Family, I worshiped with her for many years and had many good visits with her in "Walmart." I had lost contact with her and thought about her often, my last visit with her was when she lived in the Brazos Apartments. She was such a sweet and loving person and I feel blessed to have known her. Sincerely, Geneva Walling

“ So sorry to hear of the passing of Great Aunt Mary Jo. Mary Jo was a very special person and very talented. I think of her every time I hang clothes on the hangers she made or take food out of the oven with the hot pads she made. Gavin, Jan, and Cary my prayers are with you during this difficult time.

“ Some of us there and some with broken hearts far away are suffering too. You were a wonderful Aunt. In my case a second Mother. I was lucky to have had three Mothers who helped me grow up Our family was so very close and I have spent the last two days going over times with you. Things you taught me. So many fond memories. My heart is broken but you were such a wonderful, sweet, kind and loving prson that I know God welcomed you with open arms. You raised twonwonderful loving sons who have taken good care of you to the end. All your family loved you dearly. May God take you in his arms ands let you rest in peace surrounded by a beautiful garden and your loved ones. We loved you. For Cary-Gavin and Jan the pain of this day will go away some day but not your loving memory of your Mom You took such good care of her. god heals through the Love and Support of others. Love Ann and Imon “ Moma was a kind and gracious woman. Everybody who met her liked her. She was a wonderful mother-in-law. I always felt lucky that she was my mother-in-law. As with my own mother, she was a source of inspiration for me. I also am grateful for the excellent and devoted care Cary gave her, enabling her to live independently in her own country home until it was no longer feasible early this year because of her deteriorating health. She indicated many times to me how happy she was to live in her favorite place, the country, and be cared for by family. I feel so good about this. She always lovingly took care of other people and now people did that for her. Some of her last pleasures included looking at the large numbers of beautiful cardinals at the bird feeder through the window by her bed and eating home-cooked meals made by Cary.
