

Mary Alice Walker

March 15, 1931 - April 12, 2017

Mary Alice Walker, 86, formerly of Magnolia, Texas entered heaven on April 12, 2017 after a lengthy illness. Mary was born March 15, 1931 in Sulphur Springs, Texas to the late Huffer Allen Dossett and Pauline Reynolds Dossett. Mary was married to Billy Doyle Walker for 60 years. They were faithful members of Woodlands Place Baptist Church.

Mary came to know Jesus as a child when she attended the old time tent revivals and teaching from her godly grandmother, Sarah Etta Dossett. Mary and Bill got up every Sunday morning and dressed 4 little girls and then 1 little boy for church. They were faithful in their church attendance for 60 years - and after that, she attended when she could as her health permitted. Mary's service and joy was in working in the nursery. She loved the infants and was a support for mothers of the babies. She prayed faithfully for her children, grandchildren and great grandchildren. Mary leaves an eternal legacy of faith and trust in Christ Jesus. She saw all her children come to know Christ. She took great joy in making a home for her family - had a servant's heart, a delightful laugh and loved the outdoors – camping, gardening, her cats and feeding the wild birds.

Mary is preceded in death by husband, Billy Doyle Walker, daughter Susan Diane Wall, sister Rachel Turman, sister Phleta Tucker, brother Harry Dossett.

She is survived by sister Sandra Soffar and brother Richard Dossett; daughters Marsha Connally and husband John, Phyllis Richardson and husband Dana, Paula Lumpkin and husband Mark, and son David Allen Walker; 9 grandchildren, Larry Aston (Kensia), Tanni Wall Williamson (Charles), Jason Connally (Corinne), Michael Whitesides, Derrick Wall (Jennifer), Anne Connally, Sarah Lumpkin Hunter (Andrew), Kyle Lumpkin (Whitney), Taylor Walker; 15 great grandchildren and numerous cousins, nieces, nephews and friends.
