“ Jim,

I am the elder at Gethsemane Lutheran, Houston, TX where your mother-in-law, Tony Antrich, attends. She called me Saturday about the sad news about Maxine's unexpected passing on Friday. I have known Tony for many years at Gethsemane. Nonetheless, I wish to extend our condolences and sympathies to your family from mine and from Gethsemane Lutheran.

Gethsemane Lutheran (Pastor John Cain) had a special prayer for Maxine and your family on Sunday.

May God's Mercy and Peace be with you and may the many Memories be fond ones of Maxine.

In our Risen Christ Jesus, may Maxine continue to live in your hearts and minds.

*God Bless,
Edward, Vicki, and Charles Johnson

“ Jim and James,
I am more sorry than I can say about the loss of Maxine. She was a very special lady and I hold very dear all the memories she has made with all of us at the hospital. She will be missed dearly. She, Mary Downer and I were known as the 3 musketeers by the gift shop volunteers because for years everyday we would after lunch go to the gift shop and see if there was anything new to browse through. We were the professional shoppers. My thoughts and prayers are with ya'll.

“ Jim and James,
I just wanted to say I am so sorry for your loss and I will miss Maxine very much. When I think of her, I think of a caring and kind woman, but I also remember her as a little spitfire who loved football and beer!
I don't think I ever saw her in the same outfit twice and she always matched perfectly down to her jewelry and shoes.
She was a very private lady, but she did tell us recently such a beautiful story of how she met and married you, Jim. She was proud of you, James, and was glad to have you home.
May God comfort you both during this time.

“ Maxine I will miss you so very much. You were my dear friend and we spent many years working side by side together. Marvin and I will miss talking to you about those Longhorns and how the Aggies were the best! There are not enough words to say how much I will miss you. I am very grateful that you came by office last week and told me a very touching story about how you and Jim met and how he proposed to you. I won't ever forget you and will miss you often.

“ Mr. Lynaugh & James
I also was shocked to hear the news of Maxine. I occasionally would run into Maxine at WalMart or in the hospital cafeteria, and as always she would have a smile on her face or talking and laughing over lunch with her coworkers. She would always come over to say hello and would ask who was in the hospital. We talked for a little while and I would ask about you and James and she was so proud to give me updates about you two. I am so sorry for the loss of your wife, mother and friend. My prayers and thoughts are with you and James.

“ Jim and James, we are so very sorry for your loss. I have many fond memories of her when you had a group of us over after work or we just dropped by to give you an update, she was always the perfect host and so gracious. The last time we were in Huntsville, I met up with her at WalMart and we had a short visit, for that I am grateful and as always, she had that pleasant smile on her face when she greeted you. Our prayers are with you. Lonnie Eslick
