“ Our family would gather at Grandpa & Grandma Hargis' home in Hammond, In, for holidays. Melvin happened to be in bootcamp at Great Lakes in training in Chicago. He was able to surprise everyone by spending Christmas day with us. He was dressed in his Navy uniform, the first thing he said to his mother "I wasn't able to get you a Christmas present ". Her reply, you sure did Your Here ! I have heard Mel playing his mother's organ in their Houston house. It was just beautiful. I can imagine you playing music with the Angels in Heaven and spreading Joy. Love cousin Mardell Shearer

“ Mel was my brother. I think I was a surprise...he was 13 when I entered the world. Our brother, Walter, was 18. There were old home movies I watched...he lovingly and patiently gave me my bottles and rocked me in the rocking chair. We had a special bond...no matter how many miles apart...all thru life. He was a caring person with a beautiful soul. He will always be in my heart. Love ya Mel...your sister Karen.

“ We only knew Mel for about five years but he was the kind of guy that was friendly from the first meeting. Just a great guy and he enjoyed life. May God be with his family during this sad time.
