

Mr. Michael James Mayolo

February 7, 1997 - December 7, 2021

Michael James Mayolo left this earth suddenly on December 7, 2021, with a flight of angels. His absence will leave a great tear in the fabric of his family. Michael was born February 7th, 1997, to Mark and Evelyn Mayolo. When he was about two, his father remarried to Sarah, and Michael joined a new family. Michael is survived by his mother, Sarah (nee Vogt) Mayolo, brother Christopher Mayolo, Grandmother, Kathleen (nee Monroe) Holl, and her husband, Charlie, who Michael knew as "Grandpa", all of Crosby, Texas. Michael was a shining young man who'd only begun to see what life could offer. He spent his youth doing things that most young boys do. He loved playing video games with his brother Chris, and watching movies, but it was imagination that set him apart. Michael saw the world through the eyes of a child and was inventive in his ability to write and tell the most intriguing stories. Michael was his father's son in that he too had a penchant for taking things apart to see how they went together. His mind never stopped working. Michael was a believer. He was making his way slowly through the Bible, one book at a time. He looked for clarity and often asked questions for understanding. He and his brother Chris shared the strength of a bond only brothers can know. Michael had a teasing habit that the family fondly remembers of answering questions with a little drawn out "nooooo," which always meant "yes". He will always be remembered as a caring, loving young man.

Michael was predeceased by his father earlier this year, Mark Allen Mayolo. It was a loss from which Michael never quite recovered. Others waiting to greet Michael in Heaven include his grandfather, Bernard Mayolo, of Lincoln, Nebraska, and his grandparents, Eugene and Ethel Vogt, of Montgomery, Texas.

Do not fear for I am with you. Do not be dismayed, for I am your God. I will strengthen you and help you. Isaiah 41:10

“ I became his mother when he was 2 years old. When I would pick him up from day care, he would come running and jump up into my arms. He could be 200 feet away when he saw me. He never failed to run and jump into my arms.
He was a sickly child when he was young. We went to the doctor often. Once we were at the doctor and my father was with us. My father taught him to spin coins on a table in the waiting room. He was 3 years old. He spun coins for weeks and weeks after that. He would giggle and giggle. Michael was a very special child. Eventhough he passed away at 25, he was still a child at heart. Very loving and a great imagination. I miss him terribly. I know his brother does too. He is with his father now. I feel that he left us because he wanted to be with his father very very much. I love you Michael.

“ I think my favorite memory of Michael happened a few years ago. Several neighbors had gathered for an old fashioned hot dog roast in our front yard. I had picked up a few chips and crackers to snack on while we all waited our turn for a roasting stick. I introduced Michael to Black Pepper Triscuits, one of my favorites. He and I raved on about how fantastic they were, but no one liked them except the two of us. We kept laughing about how now there would be more for us and we wound up eating the whole box!!! We reminisced over that together a few times since then. We would start chuckling about it and he would always finish the exchange by saying, “More for us!” Then we would really start laughing. Michael will not only be missed by his family, but also by his friends and neighbors.

“ I will always remember Michael as a bright, loving young man. Mom and Dad loved him dearly. I have fond memories of Michael fishing with Grandpa at the lake and running the length of the property till his little face was beet red. He always had a hug to offer. My deepest condolences to you, Sarah, and Chris, and to Joey, Charlie, and Kathleen.

Micheal was my student for 3 years. All the teachers knew Micheal because he was always by my side. He would love going to Mrs. Courrege's culinary arts program and helping her with whatever she wanted him to do. Micheal was very special to me. He will be greatly missed by all who knew him. Rest In Peace Micheal. My prayers and thoughts are with Micheal's family. I thank God for letting me know you. Love Gloria Gibbons
