“ I cannot imagine your pain and sorrow at this time. The loss of a child is something no one should ever suffer through. I was blessed to have met Mikey as he was friends with my son Jerry - Mikey was always with a smile. Take comfort in the fact that he is with God smiling down on you now-free from the pains of this world!

“ I taught Mikey in Sunday school for three years and really enjoyed him. He would come over to our house with Isreal and John Tamarit and play with my son Joe. I really was sad to hear of his passing he was such an enjoyable kid and very polite and funny. He will be greatly missed but to his family, know this, he is with Christ our Savior and we in Christ will see him again.
