“ *Twanya and family,
I am so sorry about our loss. "Miss Cotton" used to substitute for me and the Kindergarten students always loved her. I know she treated them as her grandchildren and loved them all. I want you to know that she will be dearly remembered by many. Twanya, I am sad to say that I just realized the connection and happy to say how blessed you are to be a part of her family. Gob Bless.*

“ We are so sorry to hear of Mildreds passing and hate the fact we were not able to attend the funeral. It gives us comfort to know we can all be assured she is with our Lord now. Mildred and Raymond were our wonderful neighbors for a long time and we will miss her very much. God bless and comfort you all in this time of sorrow.

“ Mildred and Raymond are playing dominoes with Doris and Pat in Heaven now, just like they did in the sunroom at the house here. Words can't express how much we all loved them all, remember that we will see them, and the others that went before, some day. God Bless you all, see you soon. ”
