“ Dear Paula and Annette,
My thoughts and prays are with you. You both should have some comfort in knowing you kept good care of you mom in her last years of her life. I feel she is in a happy place now, blessing both of yawl. It is always hard when we lose a love one. Please give each other a hug for me, since I can not be there to give you each one from me. Later we will see about planting a tree in her memory from the Purple Passion Sisterhood.

Li um artigo que contém uma literatura da sra Mildred Pauline Jergins. Carta a Jezabel.

Artigo esse com data de 1979

Fico imaginando o calibre e a envergadura dessa mulher.

Por certo ela ouviu do Eterno: serva boa e fiel entra no goso do seu Senhor

“ Dear Annette and Paula,
So sorry for the loss of "Mom" Jergins. It is never easy to experience the passing of someone that we love so much, but there is comfort in knowing they are with our creator.

We will see you tomorrow (Friday) afternoon and are staying over for the Saturday service. See you then,

Love you,
Bob and Gladys

“ Dear Annette, We are so very sorry to hear about the death of your mother. I know you expected it, but I also know that nothing can actually prepare one for the end of a loving life! May God bless you and your family in your grief with the assurance that your mother is in a much better place than we can even imagine! Love, Ginger
