

Mildred Joy Neely

June 18, 1926 - January 12, 2019

Mildred Joy Snodgrass Brown Neely, 92, passed away on January 12, 2019 in Huntsville, Tx. Joy, as she was known to all, was born June 18, 1926 in Waco, TX to Joe E. and Eunice Mildred (Taylor) Snodgrass. Joy was preceded in death by her parents, brother Joe Ervin Snodgrass, first husband of 36 years, Charles Dean Brown, DVM, her son, Richard Dean Brown, her second husband of 24 years, Robert Allen Neely, MD and her grandson, Zachary Taylor Craig. Joy is survived by her daughter, Bette & husband Mike Craig, their children Toby Craig, and Sam Craig & his wife Damekia, their sons Jamison & Jaiden. Joy is also survived by her stepsons Byron Neely & his wife Lynn, their 2 children and Warren Neely & his wife Kim, their 2 children, and their grandchildren.

Joy was an avid collector of stamps, coins, sea shells and anything else that caught her eye. She loved genealogy & local history and found great joy in helping others with their own research. Joy loved playing tour guide and host while she and her first husband lived in Hawaii. She spent time mentoring the young wives of Texas A&M Vet School students when she lived in College Station. Joy was also a fine business woman who helped her husband build his veterinary practice in Bellville, TX. It was in Bellville that she made acquaintance with her second husband, who she would later marry after becoming a widow. During her life-time she lived in 5 different states, but always returned to Texas. Joy also found time to travel the world with each of her husbands. Joy found great pride in her grandchildren and enjoyed her visits with them.

A private graveside service will be held for family at the City of College Station Cemetery.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to: Bellville Historical Society, Box 67, Bellville, TX 77418, or to a charity of your own choosing.

Cemetery Details

College Station Cemetery

College Station, TX

Tribute Wall

“ Mildred Joy Neely

November 15, 2022 at 08:33 PM