“ Ms. Johnson, my kindergarten teacher at Richards, probably had a good laugh or two at her kids and the stories we could hand to her. My favorite was the horned toad we found in the baseball field. I brought it in and placed in the elevated sandbox. Well, during nap time, that toad found its way out of the sandbox and went around visiting the napping students. At one point, I felt eyes staring at me and woke to find that toad staring me down. Of course, I couldn't continue napping and began playing with the toad which got the other students to playing as well while Ms. Johnson had gone down the hall. So, you can imagine her displeasure when she returned to find her class not as she had left them.

Smiles and laughter come with that story. Thanks Ms. Johnson for the memories!

“ My memories of Aunt Minnie are wonderful, summer days at the farm. Keeping John Spookie and my self in line. Always a hug first thing in the morning and a kiss goodnight. Weeding flower beds and painting the fence. Teaching me to drive in the old white car. She was a special person in my life that I will never forget. As a teenager she would listen to my problems always with a story or Bible verse to help out. Thank you for sharing your life with me

“ Will always have a special place in our hearts for Miss Minnie. How could you not help but love someone who showed kindness and love to everyone she met. She had a heart bigger than Texas and literally gave something to everyone she met, whether it be something she made or one of her parables. She truly was a testament to her belief in Jesus Christ, our savior and lived every minute of her life living as she spoke. Everyone will miss her hugs, beautiful smile and especially her friendship. We are so glad we got to meet and love this beautiful lady.

“ One of my favorite moments with Bubba was the other day when she was getting up and i was helping her and she was bitching that she could do it by herself and i knew she couldn't. She looked down at my tennis shoes and with out missing a beat said oh what cute tennis shoes then in the same breath said i can walk by myself. It was an great honor to spend her last few months with her. She always introduced me to everyone everyday just to make sure that they knew i was her granddaughter and i was taking care of her.

“ Loved, loved this woman. She was such fun and she loved her family and grandchildren. I have many happy memories and have thought about her often for years. I picture in heaven throwing leaves down at me (the ones we were always picking up and bagging)! God bless you Minnie!

“ Miss Minnie was one of the kindest, sweetest ladies I have ever know. She was truly a born again Christian and her life reflected it.
We will miss all those jokes and especially the hugs. Those hugs were her trademark. We love you, our friend.

“ Family:

My memories of Aunt Minnie include remembrances of a genteel warm hearted person with a true touch of genuine class - which frankly was often rare in our immediate as well as extended families. I know her many kindnesses, her personal style, and her touch of quality will be missed. I will recall her open smile as well as her sense of humor that was indeed hers alone. Minnie was truly one of a kind...
