“ May you find comfort in the memories that are yours to cherish always, and strength in the companionship of those who share your loss.... I have learned never to underestimate the healing power we all have. It is always there to be used for the highest good. Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted. (Matthew 5:4) May it be a source of inner strength to know that there's a loving God watching over you, and that, throughout this time of need, He'll stay close by your side. I have fought the fine fight, I have run the course to the finish, I have observed the faith. -2 Timothy 4:7. As for me, I will lie down that I may sleep; I shall certainly awake, for Jehovah himself keeps supporting me. -Psalms 3:5

“ Dear Vera and Family,
It was with great sadness that we heard of Muriel's passing. Muriel visited us on a number of occasions when visiting home. She enthralled our then teenagers with stories of when she was young and her life in the States. Like Vera she liked to talk of her youth in Passage West, so I walked the old homestead grounds today in her memory and left a prayer for you all. I hope you are keeping well Vera, you are always in my thoughts. I know you will miss her terribly as you spent a lot of time together. Our prayers and thoughts are with you all. Kindest regards.
