

Nancy Linn Blackwelder

July 15, 1955 - September 23, 2024

Nancy Linn Blackwelder, beloved wife, mother, and educator, passed away on September 23, 2024, at 10 PM in The Woodlands, Texas. She was born on July 15, 1955, in Dallas, Texas, to Richard and Karen Miles.

A proud graduate of Texas Christian University, Nancy dedicated her life to education, serving as a schoolteacher with the Willis Independent School District. Her passion for teaching and her commitment to her students left a lasting impact on many.

Known for being the life of the party, Nancy was full of life, always joking and embracing the joy of living. She had a special passion for caring for others and sharing God's message of salvation with those around her.

On June 5, 1976, she married the love of her life, Jim Ray Blackwelder, in Fort Worth, Texas. Together, they built a life filled with love and adventure, living in Fort Worth, Tyler, Lafayette, and finally settling in Willis, Texas.

Nancy is survived by her loving husband, Jim Blackwelder; her sons, John Blackwelder and wife Amy, and Jason Blackwelder and wife Tiffany; her mother, Karen Miles; her brothers, Mac Miles and wife CeCe, and Doug Miles and wife Annie; her beloved dog, Trooper; and numerous family members throughout the Southeast. She was preceded in death by her father, Richard Miles; her father-in-law, Cliff Blackwelder; and her mother-in-law, Joann Blackwelder.

A memorial service will be held at Sam Houston Memorial Funeral Home, located at 10129 FM 1097W, Willis, TX 77318, on Friday, October 4, 2024, at 10:30 AM. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to Faith Based Compassion International at <https://www.compassion.com/ways-to-donate.htm> (<https://www.compassion.com/ways-to-donate.htm>).

Nancy will be deeply missed but never forgotten.
