

Nancy Brown

April 30, 1932 - February 28, 2012

Nancy Klugh Brown Nancy Klugh Brown, 79, passed away on February 28, 2012, in Huntsville, Texas. She was born April 30, 1932, in Atlanta, Georgia to Dr. George F. Klugh and Kathleen Gibbs. She is survived by her sons Worth B. "Brett" Brown of Christchurch, New Zealand and Kevin Jackson Brown and wife Darlene of Austin, Texas; grandchildren, Brittany Elizabeth Brown of Fayetteville, Arkansas, Worth John Brown and Skylar Madison Brown of Christchurch, New Zealand, Shane Jackson Brown and Jared Michael Brown of Austin; sister, Susan K. Scantlin and brother-in-law Pat H. Scantlin of Huntsville; and her two nephews, Clay and Stuart Scantlin and their families. Nancy's foremost love was family. She treasured spending time with them during their visits to Huntsville. She especially treasured her time in New Mexico and truly enjoyed "The Land of Enchantment." She also loved the outdoors and cared for horses and cattle throughout her life. This love of animals led to active participation in the Walker County Fair Association and the Rita B. Huff Humane Society of Walker County. Her efforts were essential in the creation of the Huntsville Animal Shelter. She was also a lifelong member of Daughters of the Republic of Texas, Daughters of the American Revolution and Daughters of American Colonists. In lieu of flowers, the family requests that memorials be sent to The Rita B. Huff Humane Society, 530 Bearkat Blvd., Huntsville, Texas 77340 in Nancy's memory. Those wishing to leave memorial condolences for the family may do so at www.shmfh.com
