

Norman Douglas "Doug" Kilgore

May 15, 1960 - August 22, 2018

Norman Douglas Kilgore Jr. (Doug)

05/15/1960-8/22/2018

It is with great sadness that we announce the passing of our dear son, brother and uncle Doug. He passed away in Huntsville, Texas he leaves behind , his parents Norman and Peggy Kilgore, sister, Sherry Kilgore, brother Gary Kilgore (Corey) nephews Jack and Sam. His niece, Bristol Lopez (Tristen) , great nieces Arya and Lilyanne.

For all who knew him knew he rarely lost an argument, loved collecting coins and talking and listening to his ham radio. He loved his cigars and good old rock and roll. Services were private.

Those who would like to honor him may do so by donating to the Christopher and Dana Reeves Foundation for spinal cord injury research.

Tribute Wall

“ Norman Douglas "Doug" Kilgore

November 15, 2022 at 08:33 PM

“ I remember watching Star Trek with Doug and Gary at the house on Greentree Lane in West Chester. I also remember Doug loved my Mom's cranberry fluff recipe which he referred to as "Pink Stuff"

Rich Arner - April 29, 2020 at 08:29 AM

“ I loved Doug. I remember him running around the Indian Springs CC pool with abandon. He was such a charismatic person. Miss you.

Miriam Alcott Percy - August 27, 2018 at 08:17 PM

“ Sister lit a candle in memory of Norman Douglas "Doug" Kilgore

sister - August 25, 2018 at 12:55 PM

TL

Back in the day most of us listened to the radio ridin in the car. No Sirius. Spent a lot of time trying to figure out the name of an artist singing. Usually just gave up and quit. Then we started calling Doug. Well, he always knew the answer. We'd hum a little of it. Seem like it was usually just enough for him to tell us the answer. Should've been a DJ. THE BEST NIGHT AT THE BOAT. Got a late start. Dark. Raining too. Three handed poker was on the menu. Yeah Doug went back-and-forth. Win a little loose a little. But he had his poker face on. So did I. Well A royal flush came along with some money on the table. That will change your face every time. People at that table was so excited. None happier than Doug though. Brought every bit of that money home. Thanks for everything Doug. Loved your crawfish boils.

Terry Lichy - September 04, 2018 at 10:48 AM