Lou and family I am so sorry for y'all's loss. Obie was a kind and caring man; very dedicated to his family, church, community and country. Obie was always ready to help out. Obie's grandmother and my grandmother were sister's. I know Obie loved his horses dogs and cattle. He enjoyed hunting and loved Ray Price. I saw a TV show where this guy taught his horse to load in the back of his pickup truck, I thought, man they didn't have anything on ole Obie, he was doing that 50 years ago, hauling his horse everywhere in bed of his truck, no cattle side frames either!! Obie will be missed by all who knew him. With deepest sympathy, love and prayers. May God Bless you with His peace.

“ I will always have sweet memories of Obie. We rode together to work years ago and went to church with him through the years. Obie was always a kind gentle Gentleman and good Christian man and I will surely miss him. Obie always had so many interesting stories to tell. He told me if you talk to anyone long enough they will know someone that you know that they know. It's like you really never meet a stranger. I often think of Obie when I meet a new person that knows people that I know. Praying for his sweet wife and his children and his family and sending our love, He will surely be missed.
