“ Opal was a very caring and attentive whenever I took my mother-in-law in to have her hair done. Even when her Parkinson's made it difficult for Mother to sit straight or still, she took the time to give her a good haircut and visit with her about family. I appreciate all her commitment to others.
Our condolences to her family.

“ Dear Family: Opal was a great friend to all of us at the American Legion Post in Huntsville. We will miss her very much. She was a great lady with hug for everyone at the Legion. I had a close experience with death in 2008 where they said I died for a couple of minutes. What I saw was a golden light at the end of the tunnel. I believe Opal will see Our Lord Jesus Christ when she gets to the end of that tunnel. May God Bless all her family and friends. Allen & Edna
