“ Orville Johnson or OJ as known to his friends, is the coolest elder I've ever known! He lived his life on his own terms and made no apologies for it. OJ is like a grandfather figure to me and most of all my friend. I will miss his laugh and jokes along with the updates on his family, who he loved very much. I will also miss the stories of yester years as he told them, his wisdom and inspiration to live life to the fullest. What an example!!! There is no other like him I love him. Rest in peace my friend

I love how handsome granddad looked at Emily's wedding and how proud he was escorting her down the aisle with Emily's dad to meet her husband. I also enjoyed visiting with him and his friends and hearing his wonderful stories and humorous wit! We will miss you granddad!
