

Orville Dennis Jordan

December 27, 1951 - May 9, 2005

Orville Dennis Jordan (Loving brother, uncle and friend) Orville Dennis Jordan was born December 27, 1951 in Lufkin, Texas to Marvin Doyle and Hessie (Jones) Jordan and passed away May 4, 2005 in Conroe, Texas. He was a long time resident of Huntsville after graduating from Sam Houston State University. He loved baseball and coached Little League Baseball Teams. He was a member of a bowling league winning many tournaments because he was an outstanding bowler. He loved spending time outdoors, golfing and hunting. He is survived by his brother Herb Jordan and wife Donna, a nephew Joshua Ryan and niece Shelby Nicole to whom he loved being an uncle, and an abundance of devoted friends. Services will be held Monday May 9, 2005 at 2:00 PM in the chapel of Sam Houston Memorial Funeral Home with Rev. Reagan Cooksey officiating. Interment will follow at Brooke Cemetery under the direction of Sam Houston Memorial Funeral Home. The family will receive friends from 3 to 5pm Saturday at the funeral home.

Tribute Wall

“ Orville Dennis Jordan

November 15, 2022 at 08:33 PM

“ I want to send my thoughts and prayers to your family. I work with Donna. I pray good will put his loving arms around you all and give you all the comfort and strength you need at this time.

Susan Rogers-Garcia - May 10, 2005 at 11:59 AM

JN

“ Below is a copy of what Joshua read during the service today. Straight from the heart of an eight year old Christian boy.

I know that Uncle Den Den has talked a lot about me but it's my turn to talk about him. Uncle Den Den was a great guy I'm not just saying that because he's my uncle, I'm saying that because it is so true and each one of you know this just as I do. He was not just my uncle, but he was my friend. I will miss him a lot, but I know that he is in a better place. He will not be sick or hurt anymore because there is not sickness or pain in heaven. I bet he is having a great time right now playing with his dog, Rascal. Uncle Den Den really liked the watching the Texas Longhorns, especially when we could watch the games together. I will keep watching the Longhorns and I know that he will be smiling when they win, especially when they beat the Aggies! The last day that I spent with Uncle Den Den was with him and me and my dad watching the Astros, I will always remember that day. I hope that everyone who sees Uncle Den Den today will remember how bad he felt in the hospital, but know how good he feels today in heaven. I hope everyone here today will not be sad, but be happy that we will all see him again one day. We love you Uncle Den Den. Go Longhorns!!

Joshua Jordan - Nephew - May 09, 2005 at 09:17 PM

DS

“ My heartfelt condolences to you and your family. Dennis was a wonderful and caring person and he surely will be missed. May God give you strength and comfort at this time. Denise Sloan

Denise Sloan - May 09, 2005 at 01:17 PM

GW

“ Herby and Family, We were so saddened to hear of Dennis's passing. I know there are no words adequate at this time, but know that you and your family are in our thoughts and prayers. I will always remember Dennis's positive attitude, and as one who cared about friends and family, ahead of all else. He will be missed. We send our love and prayers to you today and always, Glenn, Jodi and Hailey

Glenn, Jodi and Hailey Wilson - May 07, 2005 at 09:19 AM

RC

“ "Peace I leave with you, My peace I give to you..." John 14:27
"Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies and God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our tribulation..." II Cor 1:3,4
Please know that we are praying that the Lord will fill you with His peace, surround you with His love, and encourage you with His presence.

The Carroll Family

Richard Carroll - May 06, 2005 at 04:06 PM

BM

“ May God continue to bless and comfort you during this time. You are in my prayers that each day you will be stronger and that you will continue to hold to the precious memories of your loved one.
Betty Mills

Betty Mills - May 06, 2005 at 01:31 PM