“ My condolences to the Robinson families. A scripture that has been beneficial to me in times of loss is John 5:28, 29 which promises that "All those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out" This is true thanks to Jesus Christ's ransom sacrifice. Also, according to Psalms 37:29 that says " the righteous themselves will possess the earth and live forever upon it" indicates we will have the oportunity to be reunited with our loved ones lost in death by means of a ressurection. I hope these Bible scriptures will be of some comfort to you. For more ecouraging thoughts on the subject, please visit jw.org

“ *David,
I just saw this and wanted to let you know that I will keep you and your children in my prayers. I was sorry to hear of the loss of your dad, I know that you were very close to him, as was your children. You need to all keep the memories of him near your heart so that he will live on forever.
Love Pete and Susan*

“ Our heartfelt sympathies to the family. Otis and my mother, Sybil Vick, were first cousins and friends, and we remember with fondness and gratitude how he would call to check on her, especially in later years. A kinder and sweeter man could not be found. We will miss him greatly.

“ We send our condolences to this wonderful family. We Otis was a wonderful man. He said something to my son that I will never forget as he was working on a fence line on Pool Rd.
Thank you Otis! We will never forget you. You were. Very good Christian man
