“ The man above needed one more angel so she is safe in God's care now. We do not understand why things happen. I truly feel your pain so I am sending lots of prayers your way. I ask God to give you the strength and understanding along with the comfort you will need as all of you grieve your loss. I have gone through the pain of losing two children and my mother so I offer my help if needed. We will all cherish the memories. I wonder if she and Jeanette are playing Bingo. They are now looking down on all of you from Heaven with a smile. I just got home from visiting several hours with Pat Rowen whom I have not seen since 2008 when she brought Jeanette to the funeral home in Brenham. We spent several hours talking about the past so when I got home I started looking up everyone when I found out about the loss of your mother. I will contact her at daylight to inform her of your loss. Years ago someone said the following to me " Just remember we will be with them a lot longer than we will be without them."

At the time I thought this was cruel for someone to say this to me just three days after losing my son but as time has past I have realized that what they said was true so I cherish the thought every second. God Bless all of you.

“ Mom I miss you so much everyday. I drive by your house and want you to know even though there is a huge void in my life I try hard to comfort Anson and Wesley and feed them so many times I have gone by to check on them and find both of them crying. I told them that you would want them to be happy (because I am certain you are) and then whoa and behold I get a splinter or a button falls off or I see a new recipe with lemons in it and I want to call you or go to you for help and I remember that you are not there or like Melvin and Wesley say they just look at your chair by the kitchen table and they just cry so they keep your jacket on the chair in case you get cold, keep your coffee cup in place in case you want a refill and keep your cigarettes by the lighter and ash tray in case you want a smoke. This is just the beginning of our memories Mom and we will never forget. I, no we love and miss you mom but we will never forget you.
