

Paul Sanderson Oates

December 17, 1938 - May 20, 2018

Paul Sanderson Oates was born December 17, 1938 to Ernest and Olive Oates in Trinity, Texas.

He is survived by his wife of 54 years Sadie Marie; one son Scott Oates of Huntsville; three daughters Shelly Rash of Conroe, Michelle Roberts of Willis and Jill Stark of Houston; seven grandchildren Billy Andrews, Joshua Thornton, Raven Oates, Corbin Rash, Colton Rash, Landon Oates and Irelyn Oates; five great-grandkids Audrey, Aiden, Asher and Alexa Fernandez and Rylan Andrews; and one brother Charles Oates of Crockett. He was preceded in death by three sisters Mary Sue Perry, Juanita Naasz and June Roden.

Paul was a great provider for his family, working as a Petroleum Distributor, with his brother; following in his father's footsteps.

Paul lived and worked in Huntsville but his heart was always in his hometown of Trinity. He always looked forward to his high school reunion every year and seeing his old classmates. He enjoyed visiting his coffee shop buddies at the Texan, but he also enjoyed sleeping in.

“ Yesterday was the last time I will hold your hand. I couldnt have had a better father to You were my Daddio.. my Daddy.. and best of all my friend.. You taught me to be strong.. you taught me to be kind.. you taught me about life.. I was blessed to have you by my side.... I adored YOU!!! and I was your baby girl.. I will forever be your baby girl.. This week is going to be the hardest week of my life.. My Daddy gained his wings.. When I walked in to see his body.. The lights flickered and made a loud clicking sound.. My Daddy waited to leave this world and he wanted me to know.. I know I will see him again.. I know we will be together again.. I love this man more than words can ever express.. #brokenbabygirl... #ineedmydaddy

“ Dad,

You were a great father and role model to me. I was fortunate to work many years with you and Charles. The stories, the lessons taught, the lessons learned, all that will be passed down and retold for generations. In doing so your legacy will endure the test of time, even though you are in heaven. I thank you and will love you and always miss you until I see you again. Much love, your son, Scott
