

Paul Edward Venable

July 1, 1961 - June 7, 2023

Paul Venable (61), of Montgomery, Texas passed away unexpectedly June 7th, 2023. He was born to Eleanor and Edward 'Ed' Venable in Mount Holly, New Jersey.

He was a loving partner to his wife Glenda 'Gigi' Venable for 35 years and an amazing father to his two children, Keele and Trevor. Aside from being survived by his wife and children, Paul leaves behind his mother, Eleanor Venable, and his father, Ed, along with Ed's wife Linda Venable. He is also survived by his sister, Cheryl Roper, her husband Mark Roper, his cousins Rhonda Lusco and Butch Largin as well as various nieces and nephews.

Although he went to school in a variety of locations, he finished high-school in Dover, Delaware and proceeded to Baylor University. There he was a Beta Theta Pi pledge in Spring of 1980; he and the other Taurus brothers formed lifelong friendships. Following his Bachelors of Science in Information Technology, he met Gigi and settled into family life around Dallas, Texas. Paul was an exceptionally accomplished technical sales professional, with over 30 years of experience in the IT and Technical Sales industry. He enjoyed and excelled in his work, often traveling widely to provide for his family. His career success eventually moved the family to Austin, Texas in 2006 until he and Gigi moved to Montgomery, Texas to enjoy retirement.

His most recent favorite saying was, "life is good" and he lived life with a vibrantly positive attitude peppered with cool cars, ever-present humor, and endearing support. Aside from a passion for quality vehicles and an affinity for small white fluffy dogs, Paul had an immense love for those in his life. He reveled in the accomplishments of those around him, consistently touting his friends and family - far beyond the traditional networking of a born salesman. In tune with his gift-giving love language, his favorite holiday was Christmas, where his family will always treasure the memories of the elaborate gifting gags. Paul maintained a strong opinion that the good fortunate experienced in his life should be paired with unwavering support for those less fortunate. Along with regularly supporting various charities throughout the year. He took great pride in picking out each individual gift for families in need for every holiday season.

Paul's family is holding a celebration of life on Saturday, June 17th, 2023, at 3:00 pm. The service is at Sam Houston Memorial in Willis, TX.
