“ We shar in the sorry of Paul passing, but be assured that she is in the place we all long to be soon! I remember Paula so vividly, talking to her many times on the phone these last months. She would always ask about me, not worrying about herswelf. She said I am praying for you Aunt Margie and I love you so much. God hold her in your hands and let her finally rest in your arms! Pauls was ready for this trip, when God wanted her. How blessed she is to know that God needed her in Heaven now. Blessings to the whole family and remember Jesus loves you, and so do I.G

“ We are so very sorry to have to share in the lose of Paula. Seems like only yesterday we were having a good time at the farm with her, Robert, David and Billie. Billie, Mike, Tim. Robert and Melissa, know that our prayers are with you through this difficult time and we also pray for healing of your sorrows in knowing that Paula will be resting in God's hands. We will all join with her in the days to come for a big Homecoming Reunion. We love you all.

“ I can't find the words to express how awful I feel. Aunt Billie- A mother should never have to go through seeing her child go through all that Paula went through. Mike and Tim- please try to remember only the good times you guys shared with Paula. Oscar, Robert, Melissa and kids I am so sorry for your loss. I will keep you all in my prayers.
