“ *Dear Billy and Trisha,
Marla and I are so very sorry to hear of the loss of your Mom. What a great lady! We both have so many great memories of her, and your whole family. She was such a trooper for volunteering when it came to anything involving her kids. We also remember being at your home so many times over the years. We pray that the peace of God, which passes all understanding, will guard you hearts and minds as you place all the wonderful memories you have of her in your hearts for safe keeping. God Bless you all, Herb and Marla*
