

Perry James Brown

October 21, 1963 - February 27, 2015

Perry “Tangua Running Bear” James Brown, 51, descendant of the Choctaw Nation and resident of Huntsville, Texas passed away Friday, February 27, 2015 after a brief illness that he chose to face his own way. He was born on October 21, 1963 in Houston Texas.

Perry was one with nature, and enjoyed camping and animals. He loved life, was kind, gentle and very smart, which allowed him to be a good teacher. He could always figure a way to solve problems and always thought “Outside The Box.”

Perry leaves a lot of fond memories to all that knew him. Left to cherish his memory are mother Faye Brown; son and wife Christopher James and Kelly Brown; son Lucas Neal Brown; brother and wife Jerry Robert and Christie Brown; brother and wife John “Buck” and Pam Gaudot ; sister and husband Jacqui Gaudot and Reid Bush; brother and wife Melton L. Jr. and Trish Brown; sister and husband Sharon and Patrick Riley; nephews Aaron Robert Brown and Matthew Kaleb Brown; and a host of friends and other relatives including June Raley, Virgie Sims and Maydell Sims. He is preceded in death by his father Bill Brown.

A memorial service in celebration of Perry’s life will be held at 2:00 PM on Saturday, March 7, 2015 at Pine Prairie Free Will Baptist Church, #80 Phil

Wood Road, Huntsville, Texas.

Memorial donations may be made to Pine Prairie Free Will Baptist Church,
#80 Phil Wood Road, Huntsville, Texas 77320.

“ Perry was more than a friend, he was family. He called me little sis and he was my brother. We may not have shared the same blood but we shared a friendship and great respect for each other for 40 years. I will miss his laughter, signature smile and sound advice. I loved him dearly and I will always have wonderful memories that I cherish. I LOVE YOU PB.

“ *Faye & Family:
We are so sorry to hear of the passing of Perry. Our hearts are broken for your family's loss. We got to know Perry through church and then he worked for Bob painting for a while. Your family has always been such good Christian friends of ours. We love all of you dearly. Please let us know how we can help you.*

I was there when a tiny little guy had just been brought home . Perry was surely blessed when he was brought into his parents home. May the lord have Perry in his hand and he without pain forever and ever . Faye , and Jerry , god bless and I am so sorry for your loss . Faye , my love to you and Jerry ! I will see you all at the memorial . JR.
