

Philip Hyman

December 23, 2014

Philip J. Hyman, age 86, passed away December 23, 2014. He is survived by his daughter Lynne Bergherr and husband Scott, and grand-dog Tika. Philip was preceded in death by his wife, Josephine.

After retirement as head custodian for Willis High School, Philip's years were filled with gardening, fishing, watching the Houston Texans and Texas Longhorn football, and looking forward to the fish fry at the KC Hall. His love of family and friends was truly one of his greatest assets, and he will be missed by all who knew him.

Visitation with the family will be held Tuesday, December 30 from 5-7 PM at Sam Houston Memorial Funeral Home in Willis, with the Rosary beginning at 6 PM. A Graveside Service will be held on Wednesday, December 31 at 10 AM at the Shepherd Hill Cemetery. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made in Philip's honor to the charity organization of your choice. Condolences may be left on our website at www.shmfh.com.

Tribute Wall

“ Philip Hyman

November 15, 2022 at 08:33 PM

“ Lynne-

I want to thank you for sharing your dad with my family. Mr. Hyman was a kind, thoughtful and strong man and will be in our hearts forever. My daughters considered him a grandpa and he touched our lives in so many wonderful ways! I remember bringing Hailey over to visit when she was first born and how almost 20 years later he still remembered...joking that she would have fit in a shoe box! I know this is so difficult right now and please know all of those wonderful memories of your great dad will comfort you. Sincerely, Wendy, Victor, Hailey, Sarah, Jocelyn

Wendy Dow - December 29, 2014 at 11:37 AM

“ Lynne,

So truly sorry to hear about the loss of your dad. He was a good guy and always had a smile and kind words. Our thoughts and prayers are with you. Treasure the memories you have in your heart, they will mean so much to you in days ahead.

*Love,
Peggy*

Lynne - December 28, 2014 at 07:53 PM

“ Lynne I sorry for the loss of your dad. We worked at the same school quite a few years, he loved his job. Love Liz Gregory

Elizabeth Gregory - December 27, 2014 at 02:54 PM

BK

“ Dear Lynne,

I was so sorry to hear about your dad. We just moved in next door in June and I really loved talking to him before I left for work. He told me all about you, grand dog and how he loved making biscuits in the middle of the night! I feel like I just waved at him in his driveway a week or so ago. I will really miss seeing him. He seemed really happy we were fixing up the house nextdoor and loved telling me tales of the street! I hope his memory becomaes a blessing instead of sadness for you. Please let me know if you ned me to do anything/watch anything for you. Becki

Becki Kasoff - December 26, 2014 at 05:38 PM

SM

“ My condolences to the Hynan families. I am sorry to hear about the loss of your dear loved one. Some Bible scriptures that have helped me during times of loss include Isaiah 26:19 and Psalm 37:29 which states "Your dead ones will live live...They will rise." And the Bible also says: "The righteous themselves will possess the earth, and they will reside forever upon it." Therefore the Bible promises that there will be a time when we may be reunited with our loved ones lost in death by means of an earthly resurrection. This is further confirmed by John 5:28:29 which says "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." This is possible thanks to Jesus Christ's ransom sacrifice. Thus we have a genuine hope of everlasting life in a world without wickedness or suffering. I hope these scriptures will be of some comfort to you. For more encouraging thoughts on this subject, please visit www.jw.org

Sunny Mendoza - December 25, 2014 at 08:10 PM