

Phillip A. Wagner

January 7, 1938 - February 7, 2025

Phillip Andrew Wagner, born January 7, 1938, on the Mary Wagner property off Shepard Hill Road, passed away peacefully on February 7, 2025. He started his working career as a butcher at a local meat processing business in Conroe, TX. He eventually migrated to Houston, Texas where he worked in the meat delivery business. As time progressed, he worked at BSI, who supplied most of the insulation to the large buildings in downtown Houston. He finished his career working in maintenance at Willis High School.

Phillip is preceded in death by his mother Mary Wagner, his daughter Diane Wagner Konieczny, his sister Dorothy Swiech, and his brother-in-law Anton Swiech.

He leaves behind his son Randy and wife Charla, his brother Tommy (Joe) Wagner, and son-in-law Pat Konieczny. Grandkids Kyle and wife Emily, Adam Konieczny, Shelby Wagner, and great grandson Lane Konieczny. His niece Cheryl, her husband John Williams and their children Jaclyn Holer, Caitlyn Bellot, Issac, Jonathan, and Mikayla. He is also survived by his cousin Theresa and her husband Willie Hoffart.

Phillip never met a stranger. If he were in a grocery store, VFW bingo hall, or in a casino, he would always strike up a conversation with anyone as though he had known them for many years. He also liked to drive his truck around the neighborhood hoping to see one of his neighbors outside so he could stop and talk to them.

Phillip never let his skills as a butcher go to waste. When one of his friends killed a deer, they would bring it to Phillip, so he could process the meat for them. This was also still true if they caught a large stringer of Crappie from Lake Conroe. It would not take long for Phillip to fillet it for them into beautiful slabs. Phillip was also a dedicated member of the Knights of Columbus located on Whitney Drive in Houston, Texas. He spent many hours serving refreshments at the many events held at the K. C. Hall.

The family would like to extend their deepest appreciation to Cheryl and Keith Ellisor for taking care of Phillip.

“ Big Brother "Pieniadze" we are going to miss you but are glad that you are not having to struggle and suffer. WE had a lot of great times gambling and playing dominos. I have good memories of our many casino trips, staying up all night trying to win money or just break even. That was a lot of fun. You are now free to be with Dorothy and Diane. Rest in Peace until we see you again.

We love you Theresa and Willie

“ Phillip Wagner was a special person, friend, and Brother Knight. There are way too many fond memories of times shared together to start. I just know that Phillip was a man that I respected and trusted.

The grace of God be with him.
